

NEXANS INTEGRATES ITS RUSSIAN ACTIVITIES INTO ITS LOCAL PARTNER IMPEX ELECTRO

Paris, December 16, 2016 – Today, Nexans announced the integration of its Russian activities into its local partner Impex Electro.

Nexans keeps its current minority shareholding in Impex Electro.

This transaction is part of the Group portfolio management program and will strengthen the commercial synergies between Nexans and Impex Electro which have demonstrated outstanding results, in particular in large infrastructure projects and resources market, over the past years.

About Nexans

Nexans brings energy to life through an extensive range of cables and cabling solutions that deliver increased performance for our customers worldwide. Nexans' teams are committed to a partnership approach that supports customers in four main business areas: Power transmission and distribution (submarine and land), Energy resources (Oil & Gas, Mining and Renewables), Transportation (Road, Rail, Air, Sea) and Building (Commercial, Residential and Data Centers). Nexans' strategy is founded on continuous innovation in products, solutions and services, employee development, customer training and the introduction of safe, low-environmental-impact industrial processes.

In 2013, Nexans became the first cable player to create a Foundation to introduce sustained initiatives for access to energy for disadvantaged communities worldwide.

Nexans is an active member of Europacable, the European Association of Wire & Cable Manufacturers, and a signatory of the Europacable Industry Charter. The Charter expresses its members' commitment to the principles and objectives of developing ethical, sustainable and high-quality cables.

Nexans, acting for the energy transition, has an industrial presence in 40 countries, commercial activities worldwide, is employing close to 26,000 people and generating sales in 2015 of 6.2 billion euros. Nexans is listed on Euronext Paris, compartment A.
